BUSINESS MEN ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

John B. Schafer Chosen President to Succeed Himself

GAUT VICE PRESIDENT

Full Corps Selected — Complaints Heard of Trolley System and Depot

Officers were elected for the ensuing year by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at its annual meeting held Thursday evening in the association rooms in the Kirk and Clark building. A change was effected in the constitution relative to the election of officers for two terms in succession. All of Section 6, Article 10 was repealed. This made it possible to elect John B. Schafer president to succeed himself.

The list of newly-elected officers is as follows: President, J. B. Schafer; vice president, W. R. Gaut; corresponding secretary, Alexander Gray; recording secretary, Carl M. Wertz; treasurer, E. W. Hastings. The directors elected were Walter Byerly, Dr. H. J. Kepman, William Kirk, J. M. Fleming and J. K. Riekey.

Unsatisfactory service and lack of sufficient cars during rush hours on the Pittsburgh Railways line and the Westside Electric Street Railway company was complained of by J. M. Fleming and Councilman J. K. Riekey. It was stated that on the Pittsburgh-Charleroi line sometimes two or even three cars travel in a bunch, necessitating long waits for travelers. There appears to be considerable tangle in the schedule according to the complaints. On the Monessen-Charleroi car the main complaint is that there are too few cars during the rush time. Also on the trip across the bridge it is claimed considerable time is lost by the conductors collecting the extra fares. No action was taken by the association on the matter.

The secretary of the association was authorized to write to Superintendent A. G. Mitchell of the Monongahela Division, P. R. R. asking that conditions surrounding the freight station here be bettered. Teamsters and automobilists have been complaining of mud at the approaches to the freight station, making it difficult to get in and out.

CHARLEROI HIGH TO PLAY TONIGHT ON HOME FLOOR

The High School basketball team has in the Coraopolis High School team a fast team to meet on the local floor in the High School building tonight. When Charleroi played at Coraopolis a close score was run up by the two teams showing them well matched. This game tonight will be the first on the High School floor here for two weeks. The Freshmen team will play in the preliminary game, with a local game.

February a 'Good' Month

Only One Arrest Made Thus Far for Law Infringement Here

If a good beginning counts for anything February ought to be one of the best months in history in police circles. Not the best from the point of view of collections is meant but best in a civic way. Thursday night the first arrest of the month thus far was made. This was a drunk found near the railroad station. He contributed $3 to the borough funds to escape two close confinements in the borough jail. There have been practically no law infractions. If idleness breeds law violation then there must be no idleness.

NO DATE SET TO ADJOURN

Legislature Too Busy, Says Speaker Alter, To Quit

STRIKE MATTER IS UP

Harrisburg, Feb. 7.—Before the adjournment of the house Thursday, Speaker Alter made it clear to the legislature that it was useless to set a date for adjournment in view of the extraordinary amount of work to be done this session. He pointed out among other things the constitutional mandates for a reapportionment into congressional, senatorial and legislative districts, as well as many other important measures pledged to be enacted this session, and said that the people would hold the legislature responsible of this business was not transacted.

The house passed finally a resolution for a legislative investigation of the strike at the U. S. Steel company plant at Rankin. A resolution demanding an accounting of money expended and work done on the state insane hospital at Rittensville was introduced.

The speaker was directed to appoint a committee of five to consider charges filed against Judge Fuller of Luzerne county and report to the house whether a bill of impeachment should be drawn.

The house adjourned until Monday night.

SHOOTING IS FATAL

Man Shot Down In Affray at Inter-County Point

VICTIM IS AGGRESSOR

A wild shooting affray at the home of Stephen Sampson, an Italian residing on the old Pescock farm about a mile and a half west of Westland Thursday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock resulted in the death of William Nicolet, also an Italian, who was shot and almost instantly killed by his brother-in-law, Daniel Sampson. Another Italian at the Sampson home was wounded in the arm and bullets went through the clothing of two others but none was seriously injured.

Nicolet, the dead Italian seems to have been the aggressor in the tragedy. Nicolet quarreled with his wife who is a daughter of Stephen Sampson and a brother of the man who shot Nicolet. She left home Thursday morning.

DEMONSTRATION OF ELECTRICAL WORK TONIGHT

Dr. Matthew J. Sheldon, who is a surgeon of the American Red Cross Association, will give a public demonstration in the Bank of Charleroi Hall this evening, under the auspices of the electric department of the Bell Telephone company. The object of this demonstration is to instruct the linemen of the company and all others who have anything to do with electricity in safety methods, how to avoid danger, and what to do in case of shock. As this is a most important subject, and concerns the general public as well as the employees of the Bell Telephone company. F. W. Burwell, district manager, extends a cordial invitation to all who may be interested to be present at the demonstration. It will begin at 8 o'clock.

Special Notice.

BALLOT IS HELP

Charleroi Man Speaks In Favor of Non-Partisan Bill

WRITES TO CHAIRMAN

The Pittsburgh Dispatch this morning says that "Charles O. Frye, a neighbor and friend of Gov. John K. Tener at Charleroi, a leader in civic work in his community as well as a leading business man, has written to G. Wasson warmly endorsing the proposed non-partisan ballot act. Mr. Wasson has sent a copy of this letter to Governor Tener and copies to several other leaders of the Republican party at Harrisburg. Among other points made by Mr. Frye are these:

"The non-partisan ballot as you have proposed it will secure majority rule in most cases. Majority rule is not always right, for most all progress starts with the few who are in position to know, and then spreads to many; but greater success usually results when progress halts for a time to reach maturity and majority approval. Most important of all, the majority is most likely to be honest. Therefore it is safest and best to rely upon the will of the majority.

"It often happens that the grafters, gamblers, and other beneficiaries of personal vice can, by collusion, manipulate a primary election, where a large number of good men are running for the same office, by centralizing their strength upon an 'outwardly respectable' citizen with whom they have a secret understanding, so as to secure a plurality of the votes cast; yet they can never nominate both of the two highest candidates. Therefore the good citizens can always nominate good candidates if they but take the pains to put their names on the ticket in the first place, a duty often neglected and which no ballot law will ever

Traffic on the Pittsburg-Charleroi car line this morning was much delayed by the front trucks of a car leaving the track at Mingo. There is only a single line at that point and cars could get neither north or south until an hour and a half or more after the accident. The accident happened at 6 o'clock. George Carson was motorman of the car and Frank Lee conductor, it being the first trip to the city. The Pittsburg papers failed to arrive until after nine o'clock.

Salvation Army Captain Explains Methods of Army

"TROUBLE" A MISTAKE

Most people generally are unfamiliar with the workings of the Salvation Army, according to Capt. Hundley of Homestead, who is in charge of army work in this territory. Capt. Hundley was in Charleroi Thursday looking after work in connection with his command. His territory includes Homestead, Braddock, Duquesne, East Pittsburg, McKeesport, Riverton, Belle Vernon, Monessen, Charleroi and Monongahela. That it is necessary to secure contributions from every town represented, is his statement.

"The Salvation Army doesn't come into a town to interfere with work as carried on by charitably disposed persons," says Capt. Hundley in speaking of a local case where one of his command had a slight misunderstanding with the local Associated Board of Charities. "The Salvation Army goes into any community to operate as an independent organization, religious and charitable, using its own peculiar methods as prescribed by rules and regulations governing the body.

"What relief work we do as members of the Salvation Army is simply means to an end—to fill a man's stomach to reach his soul, this being the prime object of our existence and all our work. I am very sorry that our solicitor labored as he did. It appears to me as somewhat of a mistake all the way around. I have no doubt of the efficiency of the work of the Associated Board of Charities, but I

Charleroi Business Men's Association Takes Action

MEASURE BEFORE HOUSE

Legislature Takes Up Matter Pittsburg Publicity Bureau Working for It

A resolution urging the passage of what is known as the "Altar fraudulent advertising bill" by the State legislature was adopted by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at its February meeting held Thursday night. The bill is one that if adopted will prohibit the advertising of goods fraudulently by merchants, brokers or any other class of men in the State. It will prohibit the advertising of goods to be sold below cost, if they are really not to be sold below cost. The bill is aimed at what are commonly known as "sharks" that prey upon the unwary public.

The Charleroi Business Men's Association took action at the instance of the Pittsburg Publicity bureau. A letter was received from this body, and a copy of the bill was read before the local association. The bill has already been reported out of committee by the house and it is said to be in a fair way of passage.

The text of the bill follows: To prohibit the making or dissemination of false or misleading statements or assertions concerning any merchandise, securities or services, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted that whoever, in a newspaper, periodical, circular, form letter, or other publication published, distributed or circulated in this Commonwealth, or in any advertisement in this Commonwealth, knowingly makes or disseminates or causes to be made or disseminated any statement or assertion concerning the quantity, the quality, the value the merit, the use, the present or former price, the cost, the reason for the price or the motive or purpose of a sale of any merchandise, securities or services, or concerning the method or cost of production or manufacture of such merchandise or the possession of rewards, prizes or distinctions conferred on account of such merchandise or the manner or source of purchase of such merchandise or securities, which is untrue or calculated to mislead, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $100 or more than $1,000, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 60 days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

OUR STATE ROADS.

Unfortunately, since the state has taken over the maintenance and improvement of some eight thousand miles of county roads embodied in Governor Tener's system of road improvement, an attempt is being made to make political capital out of the movement. Pending the submission of an amendment to the state constitution to issue fifty million dollars in bonds to provide funds to complete the work, Highways Commissioner Bigelow and his work is being viciously attacked in many quarters by those who seek to discredit the administration. It is easy to find fault with the preliminary work that has been done and is in progress as lack of funds prevents much of the work started from being prosecuted to a speedy conclusion, while in other sections personal animosity is aroused because that locality has not been given preference in starting the improvements.
This, together with the charge that the department is being used for political purposes, is made to fan the flame of discontent, and unless this is checked there is danger that the voters may defeat the bond issue amendment when it comes up to them for action at the polls.

Every person interested in the improvement of the roads by the state should make a special effort to offset this pernicious sentiment. It is being aroused for the express purpose of discrediting Governor Tener's administration and it would be a stat-wide calamity to permit the personal rancor of a few political malcontents to hamper the great work of road building by the state. This is one of the most important constructive measures ever undertaken by the state and its successful completion would be one of the monuments of progress of the century. If mistakes have been made in the department of highways they can be corrected. The management is in capable hands, and it will be a crime and an disgrace to block the wheels of progress in order to wreak a petty personal political revenge.

ANOTHER LINK.

In giving first reading at its last meeting to an ordinance to pave the lower end of Fallowfield avenue from Ninth street to the intersection of Lincoln avenue, a distance of perhaps a square and a half, the borough council will close up another small but important link in the paving system of Charleroi. The council also by this action demonstrates that it is ready and willing at all times to act in conjunction with the property holders along these unpaved sections, and to authorize the borough's share of expense in making the improvements.

This paving will be important from the fact that it will finish up the unpaved section of Fallowfield avenue and complete that thoroughfare, and thus make a paved connection with Lincoln avenue, which is in the plan for state road improvements, possibly next season. This paving of Lincoln avenue is next in order and the borough is ready to co-operate with the state as soon as the latter is ready to begin the improvement. In the meantime small connections that close up unpaved sections can be improved at a small outlay, and as fast as the citizens petition for these improvements they invariably find the borough council ready to co-operate

PICKED UP IN PASSING

The New Castle Herald recounts a condition in that city which applies most forcibly to Charleroi. This is printed under the heading of "Baving
at Home," and is as follows:

"Every business man appreciates the resulting gain that would be his if all would do their buying at home, instead of making many of their large-order purchases out of town through mail order houses or in person. But sometimes the merchant forgets that the business men of the larger cities are bringing their wares before the notice of the New Castle public every day in the year by liberal advertising in the hundreds of newspapers sent into this city each morning.

"Interest is thus aroused in the bargains attractively offered in Pittsburg and Cleveland papers, which lure many to those cities in the belief that they can secure more there for their money, forgetting that the expenses of the trip must be included to give the real cost of their purchases.
The local merchant owes it to himself to do all in his power to correct this,
if he wishes to secure the trade that should naturally come to him.

"Concerning this very matter the Chester Times gives an interesting dialogue, which occurred on the street these three weeks between a Chester merchant and an acquaintance whom he chanced to meet as the latter was wending his way home from the station after a shopping trip to Philadelphia. Chester is situated to the City of Brotherly Love much the same as is New Castle to Pittsburgh, so the incident has application in this city just as forcibly as in the former place and its moral should not be lost here. Says the Chester Times:

"A local merchant met a friend the other day, who was carrying a package and being friendly said,
'What have you in your bundle?'

"Oh, that's something I bought in Philadelphia.' After showing it the merchant said:

"I could have sold you exactly the same thing for less money than you paid.'

"Could you? was the reply. Then why don't you patronize your home paper and let us know what you have for us? I never knew you kept such things."

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI

Although disappointed in its vaudeville program for the week, owing to the sickness of one of the members of the principal act, the Palace Theatre made up the deficiency in a most excellent moving picture bill. The special feature Monday night "Crime and the Law," was a vivid picture of the injustice of the law which ties a wife to an outlaw husband. The film in four parts tells the story of a woman left by a criminal husband to support herself and child. She finally surmounts a fierce struggle with poverty and secures a peaceful home which is interrupted by the arrival of her worthless husband who has been released from prison. Rather than sink to his level the mother kills herself and child by inhaling charcoal fumes. "Lady Clair," a version of Tennyson's beautiful poem, was superbly displayed. This picture showed photography and acting that was in a class by itself. "The Iron Heel," "Adventures of Scarecrow" and "Annie Climbs the Stairs" were among the best single reel films of the week. The latter was a pathetic story of a tenement crippled child of about five years old, who climbed six flights of the tenement stairs, shedding peace and happiness among the tenants at every landing. For Monday's special Manager Barnhart has booked Eugene Sue's great masterpiece, "The Mysteries of Paris," in four reels, which is one of the most expensive films yet staged.

THE COYLE—CHARLEROI

With six reels for Monday's special offerings, the Coyle opened a week of motion pictures and photoplays that has rarely been excelled anywhere. The offering Monday was "The Palace of Flame," which is said to be the most expensively staged motion picture yet put on the market, as it required a $50,000 conflagration to complete it. The other three reel feature

Monday was "Life's Lottery," a human interest picture vividly portraying modern life at full tide. "On Burning Sands," was a two reel film in which two men and a woman battle for their lives in a sand storm. In order to give realism to the picture, they took most desperate chances in an actual desert cyclone. An Imp of more than unusual merit was "From Rags to Riches," another two reel feature of the week was one of the best Bison productions, "A Frontier Providence." Others on the schedule were "The Ninth Commandment," "The Quickest Way," "The Last Run of the Old Santa Fee Coach," a thrilling Frontier film and "Mammy's Chile." There is still a first-class schedule for the week end, including a Milano film for Saturday, in two reels, the "Vengeance of Vira." For Monday Mr. Coyle will present the great civil war drama, "Sheridan's Ride" in three reels.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI

The Star Theatre as usual had a most attractive repertoire this week, featuring "The Queen of Carmange" in three reels Tuesday. This was a great feature, and was well received by the large houses of the town. "Pines of Conscience" in two reels was a story in which love and intrigue figured and where two loving hearts were separated and after trials by fire are reunited at last. "His Sense of Duty" was another two reel feature that told a graphic story of actual life, which was a very strong Broncho production. "The Hazard of a Heart," "The Other Half," "Mabel's Adventure's," "The Wonders of Surgery" and others were some of the strong features of the week's bill. Gaumont's Weekly showed scenes of the oldest warship in the United States navy, the Independence, launched in 1814, training horses in the United States army, the launching of a new German cruiser, a 12,000 mile trip down the Mississippi by aeroplane, the gathering of the governors at Richmond, Va., and a million dollar fire in the Standard Oil cooper shops at Bayonne, N. J. For Saturday Manager Cowan has a great two reel Kay-Bee, "The Dead Pays," and "Five Evenings," a fine comedy.

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG

Mr. Davis offers for the delectation of Grand patrons next week another of those well-balanced bills of artistry for which his high class vaudeville has justly earned a more than local vogue. He is announcing as the pre-eminent attraction Miss Celestia Loftus, the foremost mimic of the day. This is an event of extraordinary importance and one which is an augury of capacity attendance at both the matinee and evening performances. Miss Loftus' fame and popularity are international. So beloved is she in London that four or five years ago was interrupted that she might enjoy the honor of appearing at the special "kommand" performances given to their Majesties, King and Queen of England. Gifted with an incredibly subtle power of mimicry and with a charming egohood, Miss Loftus is able to entirely sink her own ego into the individuality of the person mimicked. She parades before our view exact replicas of Ethel Barrymore, Allah Nazimova, Julia Marlow, Enrico Caruso, Rose Stahl, the divine Sarah Bernhardt, Raymond Hitchcock, Vesto Tilly, Maude Allen, Harry Lauder, Marie Dressler, Ada Reeve, Bert Williams and Carrie De Mar. She will vary her impersonations during her Pittsburgh engagement by giving at each performance some that have not been done before and thus, in a week's stay, round out the full company of immortals whom he so delightfully, cleverly and faithfully impersonates.

As customary, Mr. Davis is also bringing for the forthcoming week a choice selection of other vaudeville headliners. He will introduce us to Miss Ray Dooley and her metropolitan minstrels. There are five pretty girls and boys with Miss Dooley and they present a spirited minstrel "first part."

Those sunny sons of Italy, George Lyons and Bob Yosco, the harpist and the singer, will provide a melange of sweet concord. Mr. Lyons plays the harp with inspiration and Mr. Yosco is a gifted violinist, as well as vocalist. Selma Braatz, the renowned girl juggler, assisted by Frau Braatz will show her virtuosity and dexterity in a series of altogether unusual accomplishments. Howard's Novelty, a spectacular exhibition of musically gifted Sheffand ponies and bull terriers, is an unique feature of the program that will appeal to the adults as well as to the youngsters. The Three Hickey Boys are exemplars of both hard and soft shoe dancing and in this specialty they are unexcelled. A variety of other specialties supplemented by motion pictures in color comprise a program which every lover of amusement should find highly enjoyable.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG

Henry W. Savage will offer for the second time at the Alvin Theatre, for a week's engagement beginning Monday evening, February 10, the sensation of the season, "Everywoman," which occupies a distinctive and unique field upon the American stage. The play is a fascinating blend of drama, comedy, opera ballet and spectacle. It was founded by its author Walter Brown, upon the ancient morality play "Everywoman," enacted throughout the country a few years ago by a band of English players but instead of being lugubrious in tone as was that work, it is a creation full of light and color, brilliant, gay and majestic. It was enthusiastically received here a year ago.

"Everywoman" represents an actual outlay of $660,000. More than 100 workmen were employed for six months in building the scenery, while a small army of experts prepared the costuming and the lighting effects. "Everywoman" has a special symphony music for which was composed by George Whitefield Chadwick, Dean of the New England Conservatory of Music. The costumes were made from original drawings by H. Mayer, the cartoonist and magazine illustrator and the entire production was staged by George Marion. The company is a large one, as there are 37 speaking characters and more than 140 people are required to give verisimilitude to the big scenes.

Among the distinguished names in the cast are those of Frederick De Bellville, Patricia Collings, H. Cooper-Cliffe, Marie Wainwright the former legitimate star, and Thais Magrane, one of the most beautiful and talented of the young leading women of the stage who has the title role.

Money talks, they say. But talk is cheap and money is not.

WOMAN ASKS DIVORCE FROM HER HUSBAND

Mary L. Landay, of Ellsworth, has filed a suit in divorce against Maurice L. Landay. Cruel and barbarous treatment is alleged. They were married April 24, 1906 and lived together until December 10, 1912, except for nine months when she says the husband deserted her. She avers he abused her, threatened her life with a revolver at one time shooting at her three times. Her husband was addicted to drink and when intoxicated subjected her to indignities and cruelties according to her testimony.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Unna, of Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and their theory has been verified by eminent scientists. This microbe destroys the hair follicles, in time causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. Then it is believed nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in treating the scalp and hair as Revall's "93" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Unna, Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than anything else can to remove dandruff and stop falling hair; and if any human agency can promote a new growth of hair it will do that, too.

We want you to make us prove it. We will pay for a month's treatment of Revall's "93" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and are not thoroughly satisfied. When we will do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it.

Start the treatment today. Your mere request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes: 50c and $1.00.

OUT TO EXTEND RELIEF

still think there is work for the Salvation Army in a community of this size.

"For the Salvation Army to exist it is necessary for each commander to solicit in outlying territory in order to carry on a part of its relief work. Demands are constantly increasing. Why, during the holidays at Homestead we distributed 100 baskets of food freed the corps of a debt of $300, distributed hundreds of garments and Christmas trees and treats to children all within two weeks.

"I have been able to account for all the money collected in Charleroi by our representative W. G. Bailey, the one that got into trouble with local authorities. He says he made no reflections on the work of the board of charities. I feel sure there is a misunderstanding existing that will affect the work here. Be sure there is always work to be done by the Salvation Army that falls to no other organization."

Capt. Hundley further stated that he considered his solicitor, Mr. Bailey, an honest and sincere Christian gentleman, and that his intentions were of the best. The mistake that he made while collecting funds was in trying to relieve distress, which he encountered, without communicating with the local board of charities. Capt. Hundley said that Mr. Bailey was new in the work and that he has instructed him not to make any more attempts while collecting here to relieve distress without first notifying his superior officer. He says he makes this statement in order to relieve any suspicion that may have arisen that the work of both the Salvation Army in this community and of Mr. Bailey was not open and above board and designed for the welfare of the poor and needy.

BUSINESS MEN ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

John B. Schafer Chosen President to Succeed Himself

Full Corps Selected — Complaints Heard of Trolley System and Depot

Officers were elected for the ensuing year by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at its annual meeting held Thursday evening in the association rooms in the Kirk and Clark building. A change was effected in the constitution relative to the election of officers for two terms in succession. All of Section 6, Article 10 was repealed. This made it possible to elect John B. Schafer president to succeed himself.

The list of newly-elected officers is as follows: President, J. B. Schafer, vice president, W. R. Gaut, corresponding secretary, Alexander Gray, recording secretary, Carl M. Wertz, treasurer, E. W. Hastings. The directors elected were Walter Byerly, Dr. H. J. Repman, William Kirk, J. M. Fleming and J. K. Ruckey.

Unsatisfactory service and lack of sufficient cars during rush hours on the Pittsburgh Railways line and the Westside Electric Street Railway company was complained of by J. M. Fleming and Councilman J. K. Ruckey. It was stated that on the Pittsburgh-Charleroi line sometimes two or even three cars travel in a bunch, necessitating long waits for travelers. There appears to be considerable tangle in the schedule according to the complaints. On the Monessen-Charleroi line the main complaint is that there are too few cars during the rush time. Also on the trip across the bridge it is claimed considerable time is lost by the conductors collecting the extra fares. No action was taken by the association on the matter.

The secretary of the association was authorized to write to Superintendent A. G. Mitchell of the Monongahela Division, P. R. R. asking that conditions surrounding the freight station here be bettered. Teamsters and automobilists have been complaining of mud at the approaches to the freight station, making it difficult to get in and out.

The Freshmen team will play in the preliminary game, with a local game.

February a 'Good' Month

Only One Arrest Made Thus Far for Law Infringement Here

If a good beginning counts for anything February ought to be one of the best months in history to police circles. Not the best from the point of view of collections is meant, but best in a civic way. Thursday night the first arrest of the month thus far was made. This was a drunk found near the railroad station. He contributed $8 to the borough funds to escape two close confinements in the borough jail. There have been practically no law infractions. If idleness breeds law violation then there must be no idleness.

NO DATE SET TO ADJOURN

Legislature Too Busy, Says Speaker Alter, To Quit

STRIKE MATTER IS UP

Harrisburg, Feb. 7.—Before the adjournment of the house Thursday, Speaker Alter made it clear to the legislature that it was useless to set a date for adjournment in view of the extraordinary amount of work to be done this session. He pointed out among other things the constitutional mandates for a reapportionment into congressional, senatorial and legislative districts, as well as many other important measures pledged to be enacted this session, and said that the people would hold the legislature responsible of this business was not transacted.

The house passed finally a resolution for a legislative investigation of the strike at the U. S. Steel company plant at Rankin. A resolution demanding an accounting of money expended and work done on the state insane hospital at Rittersville was introduced.

The speaker was directed to appoint a committee of five to consider charges filed against Judge Fuller of Luzerne county and report to the house whether a bill of impeachment should be drawn.

The house adjourned until Monday night.

SHOOTING IS FATAL

Man Shot Down In Affray at Inter-County Point

VICTIM IS AGGRESSOR

A wild shooting affray at the home of Stephen Sampson, an Italian residing on the old Peacock farm about a mile and a half west of Westland Thursday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock resulted in the death of William Nicolet, also an Italian, who was shot and almost instantly killed by his brother-in-law, Daniel Sampson. Another Italian at the Sampson home was wounded in the arm and bullets went through the clothing of two others but none was seriously injured.

Nicolet, the dead Italian seems to have been the aggressor in the tragedy. Nicolet quarreled with his wife who is a daughter of Stephen Sampson and a brother of the man who shot Nicolet. She left home Thursday morning.

Charleroi Man Speaks In Favor of Non-Partisan Bill

The Pittsburgh Dispatch this morning says that "Charles O. Frye, a neighbor and friend of Gov. John K. Tener at Charleroi, a leader in civic work in his community as well as a leading business man, has written to G. Wasson warmly endorsing the proposed non-partisan ballot act. Mr. Wasson has sent a copy of this letter to Governor Tener and copies to several other leaders of the Republican party at Harrisburg. Among other points made by Mr. Frye are these:

"The non-partisan ballot as you have proposed it will secure majority rule in most cases. Majority rule is not always right, for most all progress starts with the few who are in position to know, and then spreads to many; but greater success usually results when progress halts for a time to reach maturity and majority approval. Most important of all, the majority is most likely to be honest. Therefore it is safest and best to rely upon the will of the majority.

"It often happens that the grafters, gamblers and other beneficiaries of personal vice can, by collusion, manipulate a primary election, where a large number of good men are running for the same office, by centralizing their strength upon an 'outwardly respectable' citizen with whom they have a secret understanding, so as to secure a plurality of the votes cast; yet they can never nominate both of the two highest candidates. Therefore the good citizens can always nominate good candidates if they but take the pains to put their names on the ticket in the first place, a duty often neglected and which no ballot law will ever

George Carson was motorman of the car and Frank Lee conductor, it being the first trip to the city. The Pittsburg paper failed to arrive until after nine o'clock.

Salvation Army Captain Explains Methods of Army

"TROUBLE" A MISTAKE

Most people generally are unfamiliar with the workings of the Salvation Army, according to Capt. Hundley of Homestead, who is in charge of army work in this territory. Capt. Hundley was in Charleroi Thursday looking after work in connection with his command. His territory includes Homestead, Braddock, Duquesne, East Pittsburgh, McKeesport, Riverton, Belle Vernon, Monessen, Charleroi and Monongahela. That it is necessary to secure contributions from every town represented, is his statement.

"The Salvation Army doesn't come into a town to interfere with work as carried on by charitably disposed persons," says Capt. Hundley in speaking of a local case where one of his command had a slight misunderstanding with the local Associated Board of Charities. "The Salvation Army goes into any community to operate as an independent organization, religious and charitable, using its own peculiar methods as prescribed by rules and regulations governing the body.

"What relief work we do as members of the Salvation Army is simply a means to an end—to fill a man's stomach to reach his soul, this being the prime object of our existence and all our work. I am very sorry that our solicitor labored as he did. It appears to me as somewhat of a mistake all the way around. I have no doubt of the efficiency of the work of the Associated Board of Charities, but I

Legislature Takes Up Matter Pittsburg Publicity Bureau Working for It

A special bill regarding the matter of what is known as the "Altar fraud" advertisement bill, by the State legislature was adopted by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at its February meeting held Thursday night. The bill is one that if adopted will prohibit the advertising of goods fraudulently by merchants, brokers or any other class of men in the State. It will prohibit the advertising of goods to be sold below cost, if they are really not to be sold below cost. The bill is a good one that may save the consumer a great deal of money.

The Charleroi Business Men's Association took action at the instance of the Pittsburg Publicity bureau. A letter was received from this body, and a copy of the bill was read before the local association. The bill has already been reported out of committee by the house and it is said to be in a fair way of passage.

The text of the bill follows: To prohibit the making or dissemination of false or misleading statements or assertions concerning any merchandise, securities or services, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted that whoever, in a newspaper, periodical, circular, form letter, or other publication published, distributed or circulated in this Commonwealth, or in any advertisement in this Commonwealth, knowingly makes or disseminates or causes to be made or disseminated any statement or assertion concerning the quantity, the quality, the value, the merit, the use, the present or former price, the cost, the reason for the price or the motive or purpose of a sale of any merchandise, securities or services, or concerning the method or cost of production or manufacture of such merchandise or the possession of rewards, prizes or distinctions conferred on account of such merchandise or the manner or source of purchase of such merchandise or securities, which is untrue or calculated to mislead, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $100 or more than $1,000, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 60 days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI

Although disappointed in its vaudeville program for the week, owing to the sickness of one of the members of the principal act, the Palace Theatre made up the deficiency in a most excellent moving picture bill. The special feature Monday night "Crime and the Law," was a vivid picture of the injustice of the law which ties a wife to an outlaw husband. The film in four parts tells the story of a woman left by a criminal husband to support herself and child. She finally surmounts a fierce struggle with poverty and secures a peaceful home which is interrupted by the arrival of her worthless husband who has been released from prison. Rather than sink to his level the mother kills herself and child by inhaling charcoal fumes. "Lady Clair," a version of Tennyson's beautiful poem, was superbly displayed. This picture showed photography and acting that was in a class by itself. "The Lion King," "Adventures of Scarecrow" and "Annie Climbs the Stairs" were among the best single reel films of the week. The latter was a pathetic story of a tenement crippled child of about five years old, who climbed six flights of the tenement stairs, shedding peace and happiness among the tenants at every landing. For Monday's special Manager Barnhart has booked Eugene Sue's great masterpiece, "The Mysteries of Paris," in four reels, which is one of the most expensive films yet staged.

THE COYLE—CHARLEROI

With six reels for Monday's special offerings, the Coyle opened a week of motion pictures and photoplays that has rarely been excelled anywhere. The offering Monday was "The Palace of Flame," which is said to be the most expensively staged motion picture yet put on the market, as it required a $50,000 conflagration to complete it. The other three reel feature

Monday was "Life's Lottery," a human interest picture vividly portraying modern life at full tide. "On Burning Sands," was a two reel film in which two men and a woman battle for their lives in a sand storm. In order to give realism to the picture, they took most desperate chances in an actual desert cyclone. An Imp of more than unusual merit was "From Rags to Riches," another two reel feature of the week was one of the best Bison productions, "A Frontier Providence." Others on the schedule were "The Ninth Commandment," "The Quickest Way," "The Last Run of the Old Santa Fee Coach," a thrilling Frontier film and "Mammy's Chile." There is still a first-class schedule for the week end, including a Milano film for Saturday, in two reels, the "Vengeance of Vira." For Monday Mr. Coyle will present the great civil war drama, "Sheridan's Ride" in three reels.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI

The Star Theatre as usual had a most attractive repertoire this week, featuring "The Queen of Carmague" in three reels Tuesday. This was a great feature, and was well received by the large houses it drew. "Fires of Conscience" in two reels was a story in which love and intrigue figured and where two loving hearts were separated and after trials by fire are reunited at last. "His Sense of Duty" was another two reel feature that told a graphic story of actual life, which was a very strong Broncho production. "The Hazzard for a Heart," "The Other Half," "Mabel's Adventure's," "The Wonders of Surgery" and others were some of the strong features of the week's bill. Gaumont's Weekly showed scenes of the oldest warship in the United States navy, the Independence, launched in 1814, training horses in the United States army, the launching of a new German cruiser, a 12,000 mile trip down the Mississippi by aeroplane, the gathering of the governors at Richmond, Va., and a million dollar fire in the Standard Oil cooper shops at Bayonne, N. J. For Saturday Manager Cowan has a great two reel Kay-Res, "The Dead Bone" and "Five Evenings," a fine comedy.

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG

Mr. Davis offers for the delectation of Grand patrons next week another of those well-balanced bills of artistry for which his high class vaudeville has justly earned a more than local vogue. He is announcing as the pre-eminent attraction Miss Celelia Loftus, the foremost mimic of the day. This is an event of extraordinary importance and one which is an augury of capacity attendance at both the matinee and evening performances. Miss Loftus' fame and popularity are international. So beloved is she in London that four or five years ago was interrupted that she might enjoy the honor of appearing at the special "command" performances given to their Majesties, King and Queen of England. Gifted with an incredibly subtle power of mimicry and with a charming egohood, Miss Loftus is able to entirely sink her own ego into the individuality of the person mimicked. She parades before our view exact replicas of Ethel Barrymore, Allah Nazimova, Julia Marlow, Enrico Caruso, Rose Stahl, the divine Sarah Bernhardt, Raymond Hitchcock, Vesto Tilly, Maude Allen, Harry Lauder, Marie Dressler, Ada Reeve, Bert Williams and Carrie De Mar. She will vary her impersonations during her Pittsburg engagement by giving at each performance some that have not been done before and thus, in a week's stay, round out the full company of immortals whom he so delightfully, cleverly and faithfully impersonates.

As customary, Mr. Davis is also bringing for the forthcoming week a choice selection of other vaudeville headliners. He will introduce us to Miss Ray Dooley and her metropolitan minstrels. There are five pretty girls and boys with Miss Dooley and they present a spirited minstrel "first part."

Those sunny sons of Italy, George Lyons and Bob Yosco, the harpist and the singer, will provide a melange of sweet concord. Mr. Lyons plays the harp with inspiration and Mr. Yosco is a gifted violinist, as well as vocalist. Selma Braatz, the renowned girl juggler, assisted by Frau Braatz will show her virtuosity and dexterity in a series of altogether unusual accomplishments. Howard's Novelty, a spectacular exhibition of musically gifted Shetland ponies and bull terriers, is an unique feature of the program that will appeal to the adults as well as to the youngsters. The Three Hickey Boys are exemplars of both hard and soft shoe dancing and in this specialty they are unexcelled. A variety of other specialties supplemented by motion pictures in color comprise a program which every lover of amusement should find highly enjoyable.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG

Henry W. Savage will offer for the second time at the Alvin Theatre, for a week's engagement beginning Monday evening, February 10, the sensationally successful dramatic spectacle "Everywoman," which occupies a distinctive and unique field upon the American stage. The play is a fascinating blend of drama, comedy, opera ballet and spectacle. It was founded by its author Walter Brown, upon the ancient morality play "Everywoman," enacted throughout the country a few years ago by a band of English players but instead of being lugubrious in tone as was that work, it is a creation full of light and color, brilliant, gay and majestic. It was enthusiastically received here a year ago.

"Everywoman" represents an actual outlay of $660,000. More than 100 workmen were employed for six months in building the scenery, while a small army of experts prepared the costuming and the lighting effects. "Everywoman" has a special symphony music for which was composed by George Whitefield Chadwick, Dean of the New England Conservatory of Music. The costumes were made from original drawings by H. Mayer the cartoonist and magazine illustrator and the entire production was staged by George Marion. The company is a large one, as there are 37 speaking characters and more than 140 people are required to give verisimilitude to the big scenes.

Among the distinguished names in the cast are those of Frederick Bellville, Patricia Collings, H. Cooper-Cliffe, Marie Wainwright the former legitimate star, and Thais Magrane, one of the most beautiful and talented of the young leading women of the stage who has the title role.

Money talks, they say. But talk is cheap and money is not.

WOMAN ASKS DIVORCE FROM HER HUSBAND

Mary L. Landay, of Ellsworth, has filed a suit in divorce against Maurice L. Landay. Cruel and barbarous treatment is alleged. They were married April 24, 1906 and lived together until December 10, 1912, except for nine months when she says the husband deserted her. She avers he abused her, threatened her life with a revolver at one time shooting at her three times. Her husband was addicted to drink and when intoxicated subjected her to indignities and cruelties according to her testimony.

Micropes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Unna, of Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and their theory has been verified by eminent scientists. This microbe destroys the hair follicles, in time causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. Then, it is believed nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in treating the scalp and hair as Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Unna. Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than anything else can to remove dandruff and stop falling hair, and if any human agency can promote a new growth of hair it will do that, too.

We want you to make us prove it. We will pay for a month's treatment of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and are not thoroughly satisfied. When we will do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it.

Start the treatment today. Your mere request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes: 50c and $1.00.

still think there is work for the Salvation Army in a community of this size.

"For the Salvation Army to exist it is necessary for each commander to solicit in outlying territory in order to carry on a part of its relief work. Demands are constantly increasing. Why, during the holidays at Homestead we distributed 100 baskets of food freed the corps of a debt of $300, distributed hundreds of garments and Christmas trees and treats to children all within two weeks.

"I have been able to account for all the money collected in Charleroi by our representative W. G. Bailey, the one that got into trouble with local authorities. He says he made no reflections on the work of the board of charities. I feel sure there is a misunderstanding existing that will affect the work here. Be sure there is always work to be done by the Salvation Army that falls to no other organization."

Capt. Hundley further stated that he considered his solicitor, Mr. Bailey, an honest and sincere Christian gentleman, and that his intentions were of the best. The mistake that he made while collecting funds was in trying to relieve distress, which he encountered, without communicating with the local board of charities. Capt. Hundley said that Mr. Bailey was new in the work and that he has instructed him not to make any more attempts while collecting here to relieve distress without first notifying his superior officer. He says he makes this statement in order to relieve any suspicion that may have arisen that the work of both the Salvation Army in this community and of Mr. Bailey was not open and above board and designed for the welfare of the poor and needy.

NEED CLOTHING

SAY POOR BOARD

Clothing is needed with which to use in certain cases of poor, in Charleroi, according to Chief of Police C. W. Albright of the Associated Board of Charities. He asks that people having clothing they do not use or need that is still wearable notify him or members of the Associated Board of Charities, or bring it to the police station in person.

It is declared there is nearly as much need this winter as there was last in spite of the fact that there seems to be plenty of work. The Associated Board of Charities extends help where help is needed, making careful investigations and keeping careful tab of the work they do.

During January there was not such a need felt because of the warm weather. Now there is declared to be necessity among both men and women and among children of both sexes.

$ We Loan Money

If you are interested we will be glad to tell you all about it without charge. The average person does not realize what a benefit an institution of this kind really is. Suppose you have four or five petty bills which you are trying to pay. It takes all you can make to pay them and keep your credit good, each one wants something each week and by paying them it keeps you continually short. Would it not be a great deal nicer if you came to us and obtained enough ready cash to pay them all in and not have them dragging on you for so long a time? Courteous and obliging employees.
